

WeCAN General Meeting Minutes
August 14, 2018, 6:00-7:00pm
1400 Quitman St.

Officer Bob Anderson, community resource officer, shared an update about crime in the area. Cars getting broken into is the number one issue, not just here but in the entire city. He brought an updated map on reported offenses.

Leah Rounds made some announcements about the WeCAN running club, schools starting up again, and looking for more people who would like to be on the WeCAN board. The next neighborhood cleanup is on October 6, and WeCAN is looking for projects that can be done in the neighborhood. Could be an alley or other project.

Alicia Manzaneres, the Principal at Cheltenham elementary school, shared about her vision for the school and updates on the school itself.

Lee Raines, the Principal at Eagleton Elementary School, also shared about herself, recent updates about the school, and the general vision and priorities for the school.

Leah Rounds also shared about Colfax Elementary School. She is the community outreach person and liaison. She also share general information about that school.

Chris Spelke came from Denver Housing Authority to share about the Vida at Sloan's Lake project info and timeline. The Vida project is an affordable housing project with 175 units, particularly for seniors and/or disabled people. This is the largest affordable housing project the DHA has taken on. The ground floor will have the Centura Neighborhood Health Clinic, Fresenius Dialysis Clinic, and DHA's Senior Activity Center. There will also be a rooftop amenity deck. We are 10 months into a 22 month construction timeline.

Troy Reynolds, the owner of Brew Culture Coffee, which will be opening soon next to Seedstock Brewery. He shared about the different products that they will be serving, including coffees, teas, kombucha taps, and others, all sourced locally from Colorado companies

The meeting ended at 6:51.
